

2024 Scholarship Recipients

Reagan Pepler – lives in Charleston, SC, granddaughter of Johnny and Susan Brown. Parents are Jennifer Pepler and Colin Wieringa. Reagan is a graduate of Cane Bay High School in Summerville. She played volley ball (named Captain); played in the band, sang choir and was on Student Council serving as Vice President and Treasurer. Also inducted into the National Honor Society. Reagan was accepted to Trident Technical College and the University of South Carolina. She will attend Trident Tech for 2 years and then transfer to the University of South Carolina, majoring in Hospitality. $5,000 award.

Elizabeth Chinn – lives in Simpsonville, SC, granddaughter of Carl and Connie Chinn. Parents are Cory and Hollie Chinn. Elizabeth is a graduate of Greenville Technical Charter High School, Greenville, SC. This is a dual enrollment school that allows students to earn college credits. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and was on the Greenville Technical College Dean’s List. In high school she earned 40 credit hours from Greenville Tech that will transfer to her college selection. As a side note...Elizabeth was in a graduating class of 125; the class earned a total of 7.2 million dollars in scholarships (plus this one they didn’t know about). Elizabeth was accepted to Clemson University, Anderson University, Presbyterian College, College of Charleston, Belmont Abbey, Winthrop University, Wingate University, Hawaii Pacific University and Western Carolina University. She will attend Clemson University where she will major in Elementary Education. Elizabeth will be able to earn her Master’s Degree in 4 years. $5,000 award.

